

BRIEF RESUME OF DR. CHETAN KALAL

Dr. Chetan Ramesh Kalal obtained his MBBS degree with three Gold medals (2006-2007) , his MD in general medicine from Maharashtra University (2011), and his DM in Hepatology from the ILBS ,New Delhi in 2016.

He is currently the Consultant, Department of Hepatology Institute of Liver Diseases, HPB Surgery and Transplant at the Global hospital, Mumbai.

He has been recipient of several awards, important one being : the prestigious AASLD Foundation Award (2016).

His major research interests in Liver diseases. He has published over 20 original articles in International journals/National journals, He has been involved with several international clinical trials on new drug development with presentations in international and national meetings and publications in peer reviewed journals.

He is the first DM Hepatologist of Maharashtra and has been active member of American Association for the Study of Liver Disease (AASLD),European Association for the Study of the Liver (EASL) , Asian Pacific Association for the Study of the Liver (APASL) , Indian society of Gastroenterology(ISG) , Indian Association for the Study of the Liver (INASL).